

INESCAPABLE PARADISE

VERSE 1

Every conversation feels like a gunfight
You keep asking me why do I wanna part?
Well, because my gun targets the sky
But yours aimed at my heart

VERSE 2

It's not that I'm mad or upset
But you keep talking 'bout that night, all I remember's a sunset
You could just move on and smile
But that just wouldn't be your style

CHORUS

I'll ask: "who is she?"
You'll say it is me
I'm making things up in my mind
Like we're some kind of an inescapable paradise
We're nothing but
A made-up love
Now I'm left with the ruins of your earthquake
We turned into a life what should have been a ten-minute break

VERSE 3

How did your initials end up on my neck?
We were just two strangers on a test
A nervous guy in a corner
And a girl in a backless dress

VERSE 4

There's this tightness in my chest
When you say you could just lay here and be done with the rest
You could just shut up and smile
But that just wouldn't be your style

BRIDGE

How did we get so unfree
You're just a friend I'd call for a late-night tea
Didn't make this choice,
Waking up to your white shirts and your husky voice

You're burring me, kissing in the rain
I'm about to lose the midnight train
You call yourself a breeze, but I feel you like a hurricane

CHORUS

I'll ask: "who is she?"
You'll say it is me
I'm making things up in my mind
Like we're some kind of an inescapable paradise
We're nothing but
A made-up love
Now I'm left with the ruins of your earthquake
We turned into a life what should have been a ten-minute break
