

STUPIDITIES OF THE PAST

VERSE 1

I don't know what to say
I don't know what to write
Add some more candles
And just leave it all behind
And if you asked me: "Love,
Wouldn't you want tonight?"
I'd tell you: "Baby,
We would still have the twilight."
The twilight

CHORUS 1

And isn't that (what's the word?)
(Ooooooooooh) Enough?
If it's a night then let's not call it love
To know you gotta argue
Gotta laugh
About the stupidities of the past

VERSE 2

If I knew nothing else
I'd think y'all were for real
But luckily my mom's books
They taught me how to feel
They also taught me that
A broken heart can't heal
That's why I hold on to it still

CHORUS 2

And isn't that
(Ooooooooooh) Enough?
If it's a night then let's not call it love
To know you gotta argue
Gotta laugh
About the stupidities of the past

BRIDGE

And if there is ever one
Where a twilight ain't enough
When I don't want to rush the candles
Then maybe I can call it us
(Uuuuuuuuuuus)
Want to see the sun go down with you
(Uuuuuuuuuuus)

CHORUS 2

And isn't that
(Ooooooooooh) Enough?
If it's a night then let's not call it love
To know you gotta argue
Gotta laugh
About the stupidities of the past
